

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

AL-MARYAM strives for Safety and Health Excellence. We are committed to achieving the highest standards in respect of the health, safety and welfare of our volunteers, visitors, recipients of Food or meals and other guests / dignatories.

AL-MARYAM acknowledges in full its responsibilities under all applicable health and safety legislation. We endeavour to meet the requirements of this legislation and maintain a safe and healthy working environment.

AL-MARYAM recognises the vital importance of our workforce in achieving our charitable aims. Fulfilling our moral and legal obligations in the care and protection of our workforce is essential to safeguarding their continued positive contribution.

AL-MARYAM strives to provide safe and healthy working conditions, equipment and systems of work. Adequate resources are critical to this provision and the implementation of this policy. Our Board of Trustees, executives and work force remain dedicated to ensuring that Safety and Health Excellence is a key management objective.

AL-MARYAM actively consults in routine with our workforce and nurture a positive attitude to health and safety issues. We will encourage our members and volunteers to identify and report hazards and suggest innovative solutions so that we can all contribute to creating and maintaining a safe working environment.

This policy reflects our commitment to ensure that health and safety at our chosen venues of FOOD-GIVING is paramount to AL-MARYAM and that effective health and safety actively contributes to our ongoing success.

The successful implementation of this policy requires a real commitment from our executive members and volunteers. As we strive for Safety and Health Excellence, we will continually monitor and review our health and safety management systems and safe working practices.
